This testiresent is satisfactory to all parties, except Knew mony was given before the committee appointed Nothings and Black Republicans. They are not by Congress: pleased with Buchanan, and must hunt up something to say; and the worst they find is, that he was wrong thirty or forty years ago. That comes with an ill grace from them, How were they three or four years ago? Not what they are now, certainly. The Know-Nothings were groping in the dark, in the corruptions of the old parties They had not found the new revelation. They were running after the brogge and the accent, and otherwise deporting themselves in the shabbiest style. If they are right now, they were wrong then. They repudiate all antecedents, and plead the limitation act on all their past creed. They are nosing out in the affairs of 1815! Why, one half of them were not born then. The fathers and mothers of a third of them had not left Ireland or Germany. They were the subjects of King George, or the Pope, or somebody else. Buckanan has been of the same party in politics during a period five times as long as the age of "Sam," and will be the same after "Sam" is dead and forgotten; and the said Sam's disciples will change their party and their creed soon after November next, if they can retain them so long.

The facts are coming out in relation to the extent of Possum Sumner's injuries, and place him in a very awkward position. For days and weeks he kept his bed, while the telegraph was busy in disseminating intelligence of his " precarious situation." One day he was in a "very critical condition;" the next day we were told that he was a "little easier;" another dispatch informed us that "it was hoped the crysipelas was arrested," &c., &c.

Well, truth must out at last. His attending physician testifies before the Congressional Committee that there was nothing in his wounds to confine him to the house one moment; that his medical attendant so told him, but that Sumner's friends advised him to stay in.

If the whole truth could be elicited, we have no doubt that not only has he been playing possum since the fight, but that he commenced the game with the first blow that was struck. That his insensibility was assumed, in order to escape the further chastisement he had not the manly courage to resist. We suggest to the Black Republicans that they adopt the possum as their emblem

KNOW-NOTHING INTOLERANCE AND INDECENor.—The large and orderly assemblage of Democrats on Thursday night, meeting in pursuance of one of the plainest and most indisputable rights as republican freemen, was much disturbed by the unmannerly interruptions of the Know-Nothings on the outskirts of the crowd. Every means that they could invent to annoy and insult the speakers, and prevent them being heard by the people, short of actual violence, was adopted. Shouting, hallooing, and throwing of turpentine balls around and among the crowd was resorted to. It was most gratifying to see the calmness and contempt with which these infamous proceedings were treated by the large number of Democrats present.—Nashville Union, 16th.

It would seem that the game played by the Know-Nothings at Louisville last year, has been successfully played out at New Orleans, in the recent elections in that city. Some four or five thousand votes have been frightened from the polls by the Know-Nothings system of bullying. The True Delta of the 5th says: "The total vote of the city on last Monday was only 7,488, out of a voting population of betwee thirteen and fourteen thousand. That some of the over zealous partisans of Mr. Fillmore were so disorderly at the anti-Fillmore Convention yesterday, that the police had to be called in to reduce them to good behavior. They were rightly served; and if these disturbances are what the Fillmore organ would call "Americans ruling America," the sooner these rowdy partisans are taught a different lesson the better.

Oppenheimer plaintiff, vs. Carter & Thomas, de Plaintiff alleged that defendants contracted carry him from Bowling Green to Louisville by stage; that they acted in so careless a manner that they caused the horses to run away with the stage and threw him out, breaking his log and other wise greatly injuring him, to his damage of $10,

Defendants answered denying the carelessness and charging that the contract was to carry plain-tiff on the outside of the stage; that he had got inside in violation of his contract, and, in doing so, had caused the horses to run away, that the driver objected to plaintiff getting inside; that he had no right to do so as the seats were engaged; that the stage was not ready to start, and, by plaintiff's own act the injury was produced and therefore plaintiff had no right to complain.

Proof conduced to show that the stage was the door nearly ready to start, the horses already hitched up; that the driver told plaintiff not to get in the ceach; that the horses ran away and broke plaintiff's leg; that no one was holding or guarding the horses at the time they started and ran away. There was also some proof showing that plaintis had agreed to ride on the ourside of the coach and had got inside against the driver's wish, and was inside when the stage ran away. There was also some conflict of testimony and some proof showing that but few accidents had ever courred on the line. The plaintiff moved for the following instruc ons, which were given by the Court.

If the jury believe from the evidence, that whilst the plaintiff was a passenger on defendants' stage, to be carried from Howling Green to Louisville, the stage, with horses hitched to it was at the door of the hotel where the passengers were expecting to go in that coach and the horses were not guarded so as to prevent them from starting, the defendants are liable for any injury caused by their starting to any passengers who got in the coach when he was warned that the horses were not guarded, and that there was danger from that cause, or he was distinctly warned or told by the driver not to get in the stage, that they must fise for plaintiff an amount in damages which will, in their opinion, be sufficient to compensate plaintiff for his loss of time, the expenses he incurred, and the rain and sufficient to compensate or consequence.

the pain and suffering he endured in consequence of the injury he received on the occasion mention ed in the pleadings. In the state of case presented in the above in structions, the facts (if true) that the coach would accommodate but nine passengers, and that plaintiff was entered after the nine, is not a sufficient excuse for defendants' omission to have the borses guarded or the plaintiff warned of the danger. [From the Panama Star, June 3d.] Central America.

WALKER'S POSITION. forms us that Walker was in Virgin Bay with 700 men, about to invade Costa Rica; that he had 200 men in Granada and 600 elsewhere; that his force consisted altegether of 1,000 foreigners, and about 500 natives, and that owing to the deprivations they were undergoing, there was a great deal of dissatisfaction among his troops. This is the sum total of what we have been able to gather by the British steamer recently arrived from Greytown. There appears no doubt of Walker's retreat from Rivas, after a heavy loss, both on his part and that

HIS PROSPECTS. By a recent arrival from La Union, we learn that the Central American States had at length formed a ccalition to oppose Gen. Walker, and that 3,000 troops from Guatemala, 2,000 from Salvador, and 1,000 from Honduras, were actually in march for Nicaragua.

These forces are to join Costa Rica, in which These forces are to join Costs Rica, in which event we see little chance for Walker's party. There is, however, one opening for him, of which he will probably avail himself. He is already aware that the British man-of war President had with the British man-of war President had sailed from Puenta Aronas, leaving that port unprotected, and he may therefore seize the Sierra Nevada, and transport his troops to that point, where he could doubtless effect an easy landing. nce on shore, he has a grand field for pillage be fore him, and he could, in all probability, reach unopposed, the plains of San Jose, where, with lots of supplies at his command, he could maintain himself for a length of time.

[From the Aspinwall Courier, June 3d.] We learn that on the morning the Daniel Webster arrived at Greytown, the schooner Minnie Shiffer also arrived at New Orleans, May 8th, with 220 men, a quantity of municiones de serrey beca, summunition and provisions, for Walker—that he had possession of the entire country; and that no forces from the adjoining states were coming upon him, as has been reported. The steamer Hermes, tender of H. B. M.'s frigate Imaum, arrived at this port on Sunday ing, the 1st inst., from San Juan del Norto.

FILLIBUSTERS FOR PANAMA. There seems to be an impression among the Panamenos that we are about having a large force of fillibusters quartered among us. We also hear it reported that some of the natives are removing to different parts of the interior. We can see no ground for any such alarm, and can only account for their leaving, upon the principle that they wisked the releaving, upon the rinciple that "the wicked flee when no man pur-

The United States will not allow fillibusters to and as long as they have a man-of war lying here, and we are under the impression that the treaty between the United States and New Granada guarantees this government protection against any such invasion.

fair specimen of all I have received: W. S. Conklin told me-"I had taken nine bottles Christie's Ague Balsam, and continually run down while using it, until my lungs and liver were congested to that degree that blood discharged from my mouth and bowels, so that all thought it impossible for me to ive through another chill! The doctors, too, did all they could for me, but thought I must die. Nothing did me any good until I got Hodes' Fever and Aque CURE, which at once relieved me of the distress and ausea at my stomach and pain in my head and bow els, and produced a permanent cure in a short time." els, and produced a permanent cure in a superior of H. The above speaks for itself. Good proof as it is, it is of no better tenor than the vast number of like certificates I have already published, and the still greater amount that is continually pouring into me.

One thing more. Last year I had occasion to CAU ION THE PUBLIC in these words: "I notice one firm who have taken one of my general c culars, substituted the name of their nostrum for my medicine, and then, with brazen impudence, end their pamphlet with the exclamation, 'Let the proprietor of any other medicine say as much if he dares,'" &c. Now I take pleasure in saying that the CAUTION re ferred to the same "Dr. Christie's Ague Balsam" that is mentioned in the above certificate. There are several other industrious people who are applying to their poisonous trash all that I publish about my Fever and Ague Cure, or Antidote to Malaria, except the certificates of cures, and the certificate of the elebrated chemist, Dr. James R. The National Hotel.

In common with other citizens of Louisville, we are truly gratified at the success of the National Hotel. It is an ornament, as well as a positive advantage, to the city, and now we can scarcely realize how we did without it so long. From the day it was first thrown open for the reception of visitors down to the present time, it has been constantly crowded with guests from all sections of the country, notwithstanding the season has been a bad one for the hotel business generally. Years were not required to build up the reputation of the "National." Its proprietors were known throughout the South and West, and the bare announcement of their names was a sufficient guaranty of the excellency of the entertainment they might effer the public. They commenced with a business which other hotels have required years to attain, and every succeeding day has only added to the popularity of the house, until now the National is everywhere known as one of the very best hotels | half of this grass. in the Union. It is needless to speak of the fare or the general conduct of the house. Its guests. whether residing in the city or temporarily sojourning here, are the best judges; and their verdict, rendered, as far as we know or believe without a dissenting voice, is to the superiority of the National over most of the first class hotels in the Union.

The firm of Abat & Railley has been dissolved, Mr. Abat retiring to his plantation in Missouri, and Mr. Railley assuming the entire business of the house. These gentlemen have many warm friends in Kentucky, and to Mr. Abat, who leaves us for a permanent home in Missouri, we tender our kindest wishes for his health and happiness, while to Mr. Railley we recommend all the patrons of the old firm, and as many new customers' as are in want of a very superior article of brandy, whisky, champagne, and wine of the most approved brands and vintage. The oid stand is still the "headquarters" of Mr. Railley.

THE HICKMAN WHEAT .- A sample of very su perior wheat, called the Hickman wheat, has been laid upon our table. It is from the farm of William L. Prather, whose farm is some three miles from the city. We are told that he has the finest growing wheat crop in Jefferson county, this season. Judging from the sample before us, the Hickman wheat is 'not only a fine species-large, full grained-but one that grows upon a strong stem, and heads out full and well. Any farmer wishing to examine the sample, can see it at our

By last night's mail we are in the receipt of the first number of the Lawrence Democrat published at Bedford , Indiana, by Messrs. N. F. Malotte, and Walter R. Johns. The paper presents a nest appearance, and is edited with considerable sbility. Mr. Johns we know intimately, not only as an excellent printer, but a high gentleman of whom our Hoosier friends may well be proud ; he is withal a sprightly writer, and will render efficient service during the canvass.

The inquiry is made of us, almost daily when shall we have water-works? We are unable to answer. Perhaps the gentlemen having this important interest in hand could impart some useful and satisfactory information. In the midst of the dust and heat of summer water is indispensable to health and comfort; and at all times is it especially needed in a large city, to promote and facilitate the manufacturing interests.

Arrival of the America.

HALIFAX. June 18. The Cunard steamship America from Liverpoo rived at 9 o'clock this morning, bringing dates o Saturday the 7th inst.

The steamer North America, from Quebec, arrived at Liverpool on the 5th.

The news mostly rolates to the difficulties with America, which had excited much discussion on ment by an editorial announcement that the United States Government had actually dismiss-ed Mr. Crampton, and that he had gone to Toed Mr. Crampton, and that he had gone to Toronto. The other journals immediately contradicted the statement as merely the random gossip of the passengers by the Atlantic.

In parliament the succeeding evening, Mr. Q. Israel put the question direct to Lord Palmerston, who made a suffering reply to the effect that he understood so from an indirect source, but Mr. Crampton had not himself said so. He (Lord P.) had no statement to make put a similar question, to which the Earl of Gran-ville replied that the Government had no information on the subject.

The Paris correspondent of the Morning Pos writes that the French Government has used every effort remove the unbappy complications which have led to the suspension of diplo between England and America, and the Emperor will continue to exercise his good offices in the same spirit of reconciliation, should the two naferences or divisions who opposed to the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, to the policy of the manner of the States, must, and shall be preserved.

Resolved, That with our republican fathers, we hold it to be a self event, truth that all men are endorsed with unalurable right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, and that the primary object and alteria design of our Federal Government, were to secure these rights to all persons within its exclusive jurisdiction, that as our republican fathers when they had abolished slavery in all our national Territory ordained that no person shall be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law, it becomes our duty to mantain this provision of the Constitution, tion, and the ministers had not thought it need against all attempts to violate it for the purpose of establishing slavery in the United States by positive legislation, problibiting its existence or extension therein, that we deny the authority of Congress of a territorial legislature, of any indicate the contract of the country and permanent extension therein, that we deny the authority of England and America would be promoted by a ontinuance of the judicious forbearence the House had hitherto shown. The questions now pending were of a grave character, but he sincerey hoped, and not without good reason, that the ussions may terminate peaceably.

(Concluded in this Evening's Democrat.) PHILADELPHIA, June 18. The Convention has adopted a platform of prin-iples, and are now debating whether to proceed o formal or informal balloting. Messrs. McLean and Chase, of Ohio, are both to withdraw, and Fremont will probably receive a plurality on the first ballot.
